

Course Name: Introduction to Virtual Production

Sponsor: Planar

CTS Renewal Units: 2.0 CTS or CTS-D

Course Description:

The Introduction to Virtual Production Certified Training Course is designed to educate attendees on the basic principles of Virtual Production and its integration with LED Display Technology. The course includes an introduction to the Concepts of Virtual Production, describes the Basic Components of a Virtual Production Volume, provides an overview of their construct and function in the system, as well as some key considerations during design and implementation.

Course Time: 2.0 hours

Learning Objectives:

At the end of this program, attendees will be able to:

- 1) Understand the Basic Concepts of Virtual Production and its place in today's Entertainment Technology Industry.
- 2) Understand the necessary components for Virtual Production.
- 3) Realize the potential to apply Virtual Production Techniques in a broader Market, as it becomes more affordable and attainable.